CINEMA IS PLANNED FOR MALL

BOLD new plans to kick-start the regeneration of Harlow town centre by transforming part of The Harvey Centre into a multi-screen cinema complex and food court have been unveiled by the shopping mall's new owners.

Addington Capital – which took control of the centre last April – is set to pump £8m into an ambitious redevelopment project focused around the sprawling former JJB Sports store on the first floor.

According to the draft proposals, an area of 25,000 sq ft incorporating the vacant shop, a neighbouring unit of equivalent size and an overhead storage area is earmarked for an eight-screen cinema, while up to six expanded first floor units have been allocated for new eateries and coffee shops.

Addington are currently locked in talks with a major UK cinema operator and several high-street restaurant chains over the plans and hope to be in a position to submit a planning application to Harlow Council within the next month.

If approved, work could start in autumn this year and be complete in time for a Christmas 2013 opening.

Cinema plan announced for town's Harvey Centre

Alex Wagstaff, partner at Addington Capital, told the Star: "We are excited about our plans to establish a state-of-the-art leisure destination within the Harvey Centre and anticipate that the proposals – if approved – will help boost the night-time economy and in turn encourage wider investment in the town centre."

"The former JJB store has been vacant since 2008, and with another unit next-door of equivalent size also sitting empty for several years, we realised there was great potential to offer our customers something new and exciting."

"By bringing in national restaurant chains, we also hope to increase the amount of time shoppers spend in the centre, giving our retailers a boost and opening up the possibility for trading hours to be extended."

The plans follow hot on the heels of a recent £1m revamp of the centre's interior – a project that Mr Wagstaff said had already reaped dividends by helping to boost customer footfall by an average of 10 per cent since its completion.

"The Harvey Centre was built in the 1980s and was designed to reflect the retail demands of the period – our ambition is to bring it into the 21st century," he added.

"We've already refurbished the main interior mall, and we now want to continue this modernisation at first floor level."

"We know the demand is there, and we're committed to providing our customers with what they want – exciting new shops, high-quality restaurants and a new leisure destination in the town centre."

The plans are now on public display in a vacant unit opposite Burger King on the first floor.

Further information is online at www.harveycentre.com and on the centre's Facebook and Twitter pages.

Shops overcharging for postage stamps

By VICKY LANE

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THREE Harlow newsagents are facing a Royal Mail probe into allegations they are overcharging customers for stamps following a Star investigation.

Local residents first alerted the Star to a number of Harlow independent retailers charging more than the set prices of 46p and 36p for first and second class stamps.

Although stamp prices are not set to rise until April 30, some shoppers reported stores were already charging the new prices of 60p for a first class stamp and 50p for second class.

After the Star attempted to purchase stamps from six independent newsagents located in the town centre and Old Harlow, three – Imran News in The Hoo, NewsRak in Old Harlow High Street and Newswell in Terminus Street – quoted prices over the set rate, while the other three retailers had run out of stock.

WHSmith, Tesco, Co-Op and Sainsbury's all offered stamps at the correct price.

When challenged about the inflated costs, the owners of Imran News and Newswell said they had been unaware they could not charge above the RRP for stamps, apologised for the "mistake" and said they would be reviewing their prices immediately.

A spokesman for NewsRak said the shop was "horrified" by the error, which he claimed had resulted from confusion over new Olympic-themed stamps.

"We want to sincerely apologise to anyone who was overcharged for stamps at the shop and would be happy to refund anybody affected," he said.

"The mix-up occurred as a result of us being sent the new Olympic-themed stamps rather than our usual order. We have now removed the stamps from sale until the problem is rectified."

Royal Mail advised that retailers

STICKY SITUATION: These three Harlow newsagents, above, were found to be selling postage stamps at increased rates – which are not due to be charged until Monday.

are bound by a set of terms and conditions when selling their products and that they would take any reports of retailers who overcharge for stamps "very seriously".

Spokesperson Valerie Antoine said: "The correct price for a first class stamp is 46 pence and a second class stamp is 36 pence. Any shop which is over-charging is in breach of its contract with Royal Mail."

"We would urge customers most strongly to refuse to pay more than the correct price for stamps and to report anybody who is overcharging to our Customer Service department on 08457 740 740 so that we can investigate immediately."

Burglaries on the increase

POLICE have warned residents to remain vigilant following a sharp rise in the number of burglaries across Harlow.

A total of 11 incidents have been reported to police in recent weeks, several of which officers say could have been prevented if householders had locked their UPVC front doors.

Thieves first struck overnight on April 11, breaking into two properties in Lower Meadow and Barley Croft and making off with various items of electrical equipment.

Then in the early hours of April 20, nine homes in Brays Mead, Rushes Mead, Shawbridge, Copse Hill, Hollyfield and Joyners Field were targeted and electrical equipment, jewellery and cash stolen.

Investigating officer PC James Smith said: "Witnesses reported seeing two white men – one suspect wearing dark clothing with a hood and the other wearing a grey hooded jumper with a large Adidas logo on the front with dark jogging bottoms."

"If you have UPVC doors, make sure you lock the door with the key, only then will your door be fully secure."

Anyone with any information regarding any of the burglaries should contact the Target Offender Team on 101 (extension 300182).

Everyone's a winner on marathon Sunday

By VICKY LANE

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

RUNNERS from the Star area were among more than 37,000 helping to raise millions of pounds for charity by taking part in the London Marathon on Sunday.

With the weather on their side, they set off in high spirits for the 26.2 mile run through the country's capital as they finally put months of training into action.

Jared Bethell (28), a personal trainer at Paringdon Sports Club, came out best of the bunch when he finished in a time of 2h 52m. "I'm very pleased and have been walking around with a big grin on my face since!" he said. Jared, who lives in Sawbridgeworth, is confident he'll raise at least £2,000 to be split between St Clare Hospice and the NSPCC.

Kenny Smith (29), of Taylifers, and Kate Stanley (29), of Challinor, supported each other through injury and sickness to cross the line in 6h 15m and raise more than £4,000 for disabled children's charity Get Kids Going.

"It was the hardest thing I've ever done but Kate picked me up and we crossed the line together," said Kenny. Kate added: "I was throwing up at about mile 20 but apart from that I loved every second of it."

Former Star news editor Mark Fletcher says he has now officially retired from marathon running after completing the course in 4h 33m to raise more than £1,100 for the Environmental Investigation Agency. "The last 10 miles were the hardest thing I have ever tackled in my life," he said. "I am so relieved it is over but also very proud of myself."

'Mad Hatter' Deb Butler raised more than £500 for the mental health charity Mind when she crossed the line with the rest of her Alice in Wonderland troupe after 6h 12m.

"The day was amazing and the Mad Hatter costume a huge hit," she said. "People were cheering and high fiving me as soon as they saw me!" Despite skipping and performing headstands throughout his 23rd marathon, Steve Hulcoop (67), of Five Acres, still finished in 4h 58m, while pal Andy Kitson (37), of Chapel Fields, completed the race in 4hr 29m. Together the pair raised over £2,000 for Christian homeless charity Housing Justice.

Asthma sufferer Andy Jamieson (40), of Canons Gate, proved that people suffering from the respiratory condition can still lead a normal life when he completed his first marathon in 6hrs 6m to raise more than £2,000 for Asthma UK.

"I am not going to worry the elite runners just yet but not bad for someone with bad asthma!" he said.

Andy Smith (30), of Mark Hall Moors, said it had been worth the pain to raise £4,600 for Macmillan Cancer Support after completing the marathon in just under 5hrs. "I'm not sure I'll be rushing to do one again any time soon though!" he added.

Fundraisers at St Clare Hospice were thrilled after receiving a combined total of £22,000 from the 20 runners taking part on their behalf.

"I cannot express how grateful I am to each and every one of the runners," said events fundraiser Tracy Stratford. "This money will pay for six patients care for a week in our in-patient unit so thank you everyone!"

Zumbathon delay works out well in the end for Pauly

A CHARITY Zumbathon has raised £615 which will be used to give women living with cancer a confidence boost.

Sawbridgeworth-based beauty and holistic therapist Pauly Chaplin teamed up with three Zumba instructors to put 60 women through their paces and raise funds for the Fabulous and Beautiful programme for which Pauly is a volunteer.

The scheme organises treatments including manicures and pedicures for cancer patients and also runs a reflexology clinic at St Margaret's Hospital in Epping.

Pauly had originally organised the event for February but had to cancel because of heavy snowfall, something that turned out to be a blessing in disguise. "We had more time to get more people along," said Pauly.

"It was a fantastic event and I'm especially grateful to the instructors who gave up their time to help this good cause and to people who couldn't make the new date but still gave money."

Disability charity seeks daredevils

A LOCAL disability charity is calling on thrillseekers with a head for heights to abseil on its behalf at Harlow Tye Rotary Club's annual fundraiser.

Motability, which provides disabled people with access to scooters, powered wheelchairs and specialised cars, is looking for people aged 16 or over to take on the challenge to abseil from the top of the 110ft-high Church Langley water tower.

Aine Canavan, the charity's events executive, said: "Every year we need to raise over £2m to help disabled people achieve independence with things like an adapted car or to fund lessons for young disabled drivers."

"Last year we raised over £600 from this event but we need people to get involved and abseil for Motability to raise more."

Spaces on the abseil, which takes place over the weekend of May 5-6, are limited. Anyone wanting to take part on behalf of Motability should contact Aine on (01279) 632258 or email ainec@motability.co.uk.

St Clare lottery

THE winner of the £1,000 prize in the St Clare Hospice lottery drawn on Friday, April 20 is ticket holder 818445, who lives in Harlow.

The second prize of £100 goes to the holder of ticket number 218661 who also lives in Harlow.

After four years of Conservative control, Harlow Council is delivering more for less, plugging the financial black holes that Labour left us and trying to make the town a better place to live and work.

Under Conservative control, we have frozen Council Tax for the last three years – it doubled under 10 years of Labour. We have preserved the future of our community services, doubled recycling levels to over 50%, renegotiated the Kier contract to provide better service and more than £4m savings, and we are investing £20,000 to improve landscaping and tackle litter hotspots in each ward – we are committed to investing in our local community. That's why after decades of neglect we secured £3 million investment in the cemetery and crematorium.

ANDREW JOHNSON
Group leader, Conservatives

To promote jobs, supported by Robert Halfon MP, we were chosen as one of 19 places in the country for an enterprise zone – creating up to 5,000 jobs.

We also successfully secured £3.5m to upgrade the roads to support this. Through working hard for residents and protecting our community services the council has been shortlisted as one of the best-performing in the country and nominated for a community investor award – we run an achieving council that local people can be proud of.

Nobody appreciates

people who stand for office and sit on the fence. Labour is fighting this election with no manifesto, no alternative budget and no ideas for how they would run our town.

This is a very dangerous position - with no budget or plan to save the community services Labour would therefore have to close them.

Residents deserve an administration passionate about getting things done to improve our community.

My Conservative colleagues and I have a clear record of delivery on all the key issues faced by our town.

The last two years have been eventful ones for Liberal Democrats. In government for the first time for over 60 years and sorting out the mess Labour left the country in, Liberal Democrats are delivering better pensions, raising personal allowances, taking millions out of paying tax, providing the pupil premium and delivering on green issues.

In Harlow, Liberal Democrats have a strong record. When we took over the council, Harlow was an expensive, underperforming, poor council. When we left office we had got the budget under control and

CHRIS MILLINGTON
Local party chairman,
Liberal Democrats

kept council tax rises to a minimum, while improving services and becoming a good council. Liberal Democrats have a proven track record. If you vote Liberal Democrat you will be electing strong local champions both for Harlow and for your area. Liberal Democrat councillors keep in touch all year and will always listen to what local people are saying.

On the council, Liberal

Democrats will work to improve the look of the town. We would restore the estate clean-ups which the Tories scrapped and work with local residents to develop local solutions to local issues. Liberal Democrats will work with the County Council to improve the state of the town's roads and pavements which, after a period of improvement, have started to deteriorate.

Liberal Democrat councillors will champion popular local services. We would look to reopen Harlow Museum in Mark Hall, protect the Playhouse and bring back the Town Show.

Liberal Democrats will support local businesses and invest in shopping areas. We would encourage more use of neighbourhood shopping facilities by making local car parks free.

Liberal Democrats have a proven track record of working for the town. By voting Liberal Democrat you will elect strong local champions who will work with you to make Harlow a better place.

The Conservatives are out of touch and not listening on the NHS, on the budget that benefits millionaires while making hard working families and pensioners pay, and on stifling growth and cutting jobs.

The Tory county council is not listening on the waste transfer station at Tany's Dell, and on parking – they are making the wrong choices for Harlow. In Harlow, the Tories have made much of the Council Tax freeze, while forgetting to mention their plan for an inflation-busting rise each year for the following four years, coupled with a £3 million black hole in the budget. These are short-term decisions, leaving the difficult decisions to the next administration. The wrong choice for Harlow. On well-loved services like the Museum and Pets' Corner, decisions have been made without guarantees of long-term sustainability. The Playhouse was given just one year's funding, passing on the decision to the next administration. The wrong choice for Harlow.

MARK WILKINSON
Group leader, Labour

Labour will be putting the concerns and needs of Harlow, and Harlow people, at the centre of everything it does. We will be looking to make the council more open and democratic. Our priorities will be sustainable housing for rent, kick-starting the stalled regeneration of Harlow, protecting well-loved services, and looking after our green spaces.

On May 3rd, Harlow will have an opportunity to send a clear message – a message to the out of touch Tory-led government on the NHS, on jobs and growth, and on the millionaire's budget.

It will be an opportunity to get a council that listens to your concerns, and puts them at the centre of everything it does – a council that understands, and is with you in tough times.

I hope you will support us, and join us in making this town we are all incredibly proud of a better place.

We are the right choice for Harlow.

Time to go to the polls

VOTERS go to the polls on Thursday (May 3) as candidates lock horns in what looks set to be a closely contested local election battle.

A total of 12 seats will be up for grabs in this year's vote – one in each of the town's 11 wards and a by-election in Bush Fair following the resignation of Labour councillor Helen Hart.

The Conservatives are bracing themselves for a "tough fight" in their bid to retain control of Harlow Council, while Labour will be hoping for a repeat of last year's success, when they took seven of the 11 seats available.

The Liberal Democrats – who just four years ago were running the council in coalition with Labour – face an uphill battle.

UKIP will field one candidate in Bush Fair – Donald Crane – while Gary Roberts will run as an Independent in Harlow Common.

This week, the Star invited representatives from each party to summarise their key election pledges as they entered the final leg of their campaigns.

No plan to close Gibberd Gallery

SIR, Unfortunately your correspondent Barbara Burge made some incorrect comments concerning Harlow Council's valued services (Letters, April 19).

There have never been any plans to close the Gibberd Gallery. I am a strong supporter of the gallery which is an important cultural venue for local and national artists to exhibit their work.

Mrs Burge has attended meetings to discuss the community services. At every meeting she has been given the opportunity to put her points of view across.

My colleagues and I have successfully administered a plan to save the community services while others have sat on the fence, complained and not put forward any alternative. Leadership is about taking tough decisions and finding solutions to problems.

I reiterate that the museum collection will remain in the ownership of the council. Science Alive has taken responsibility for the museum service, providing displays, workshops and outreach services to schools and other organisations. They are also responsible for the care and conservation of the collection.

Science Alive is working with the Friends of Harlow Museum to enable access to exhibits not on display for conservation and research purposes.

It is wrong to suggest that Science Alive cannot run the museum service professionally. They have a sustainable business plan to run the new service and I would not have agreed to the tender if they did not.

"I took it in the park last weekend," she said. "It is a beautiful light at this time of year and the trees in blossom create beautiful scenery so I just tried to capture this!"

Do you have a photograph taken in Harlow that you think is good enough to feature in the Photo of the Week section? If so, we would love to see it.

Email a high resolution copy in jpeg format – along with a brief description of your photograph along with when and where it was taken and your name and address – to star@hertsessexnews.co.uk. Please insert 'Photo of the Week' in the subject line.

organisation that has been running services in the town for a number of years. It is already providing an excellent experience for visitors by providing explanations about historical exhibits, workshops and outreach activities, providing support to teachers and encouraging volunteers.

It is maintaining the Mark Hall Museum site and is developing a community trust to use the building and gardens for a range of community purposes and potentially generate income to support other discretionary services.

Everyone involved in preserving and developing the community services has worked in the best interests of our town. I ask Mrs Burge to do the same and help to preserve them for future generations to enjoy.

Where are all the election oddballs?

SIR, I have today received my local election polling papers for a postal vote.

We only have three candidates – Labour, Conservative and Liberal Democrat. How boring!

How do you choose between three candidates who at heart are all the same? What has happened to all the others who used to stand and sometimes win like the Greens, British National Party, the Socialist Workers and the Monster Raving Loony Party? These people brought colour, interest and a spirit of fun.

Local elections are a time to give the ruling elite a poke in the eye but quite frankly I can hardly be bothered to complete the polling form. A vote for any of them will change absolutely nothing.

Tories are not a party for the working class

SIR, Andy Shannon appears to be somewhat confused and certainly operates a highly selective memory (Letters, April 12). At the time I recall Cllr Jean Clark was one of a number of Labour politicians who strongly criticised the 50p increase in pensions.

Mr Shannon remembers the Labour increase in pensions but fails to mention the granny tax imposed by George Osborne on pensioners to pay for tax cuts for millionaires, scarcely a commitment to a working class cause.

That aside, he seems to be under the illusion the Tories are now the voice and, indeed, advocate of the working class. Has he lost leave of his senses? Does he not recall the Thatcher years when she told us there was no such thing as society. She certainly paid scant regard to anyone falling within working class parameters.

Does he not also recall the Tories whilst in opposition opposed Working Families Tax Credits, the minimum wage, Surestart etc?

Like Mr Shannon, I worked hard and achieved much despite Tory governments, particularly during the 1980s and '90s. For a Tory to argue that Labour isn't interested in working class people like me just beggars belief!

Tebbit is correct in criticism of budget

SIR, For once I agree with Lord Tebbit, a former Tory MP for Harlow, who said the budget was an assault on pensioners.

He said the freezing and gradual abolition of the age related tax allowance is an error. It hurts those who have saved enough for modest pensions. It is unfair and lousy politics.

I need say no more!

Cycle paths are now a real safety hazard

SIR, I have lived in Harlow for nearly 32 years and throughout that time I have had the pleasure of walking my four dogs on the nearby cycle tracks until the last couple of years when it seems to have become a bit of a nightmare.

During that time there has been broken glass from bottles left strewn across the track, the footpath and grass verges. Many times I have picked up shards of glass and disposed of them safely to protect the dogs and people who walk along the cycle tracks.

I was appalled this week when I noticed my dog walking towards something shining on the footpath and upon looking closer I found someone had strategically placed a large number of new drawing pins upwards on the footpath and the track.

I believe they were meant to puncture tyres on the track and hurt dogs and people including young children using the footpath.

I hope the culprits responsible for such a mindless action will read this and think before endangering people and innocent animals who enjoy running/walking along the otherwise peaceful and lovely cycle tracks which Harlow is lucky to have.

CCTV would help to halt cemetery thefts

SIR, Further to your report on thefts from graves at Parndon Wood cemetery (Star, April 12), I have lived in Harlow and the surrounding areas for the past 50 years and this has been an ongoing problem for a long time.

Would it not be possible to install CCTV? I am sure the crematorium operators and Harlow Council could fund this. Also, if a fund was set up then relatives of the deceased could also contribute.

Wouldn't this then solve the problem?

Young people have no hope of a home

SIR, I write regarding the letter from Mrs A Davison regarding the housing situation in Harlow (Star, March 29). I have three children who, like their grandparents and parents, were born and bred in Harlow.

In my younger days in the 1970s we went onto the housing list and slowly worked our way up to the top. I got married in 1978 and, six months later, we were offered a two-bed flat.

Now young people like my daughter and my two sons won't even get a look in, even though they have been on the list for 10 and eight years respectively.

As for new housing for Harlow people, that's not going to happen for these young people. Harlow Council needs to build more houses/flats for Harlow people.

What a let down for future generations.

Mrs L. Darrell

Hospital staff were efficient and friendly

SIR, I would like to thank the staff at Princess Alexandra Hospital for their efficient and friendly treatment I received recently when I had a hip replacement.

As you can imagine I was very nervous arriving at the hospital but I was immediately put at ease by the doctors and nurses at reception.

I was given an epidural injection and talked to the doctors all the way through the operation. The next day I was up and shuffling around my bed and within five days I was released from hospital. Now I am being looked after by district nurses during my recovery.

Grateful thanks to all the staff from a patient who is looking forward to a more mobile life in future.

MP wants to boost literacy

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A NEW initiative aimed at tackling Harlow's "worrying" illiteracy rate has been launched by local MP Robert Halfon.

According to Government figures, around 13 per cent of adults living in the town have difficulty reading and writing – a statistic the Tory backbencher hopes to rewrite with his campaign.

Dubbed 'Reading with Rob', the project will see Mr Halfon touring local primary schools, youth groups and libraries to speak to children about the importance of reading.

He also plans to involve parents by inviting them to accompany their children to book groups and readings held across the town.

"There is a big literacy problem in Harlow and I want to do all I can to promote the love of books and reading.

"I spent a lot of time in hospital as a child and I used to read non-stop as a way of keeping myself entertained," he told the Star.

"I grew up with books and feel that reading is the most important thing – even more important than maths. You cannot get by without being able to read."

Mr Halfon said he ultimately hoped to get publishers and high-profile authors involved with the campaign, which was officially launched at Kingsmoor Primary School earlier this week.

"I read the Year 4s a chapter from one of my favourite books from my childhood – The Lion, The Witch & The Wardrobe by CS Lewis – and they were enthralled," he said.

"My hope is that I can help inspire youngsters to pick up a book instead of watching TV or playing video games and I want parents, authors, schools, publishers and local writers' groups to get involved.

"Together, we can provide a brighter future for younger generations and help improve literacy rates across the town."

For more information on how to get involved with the project, log on to www.roberthalfon.com or send an email to halfon4harlow@roberthalfon.com.

Harlow Business Exhibition provides a perfect platform

THIS year's Star-backed Harlow Business Exhibition continues to attract more exhibitors – and it's still not too late for your firm to get involved.

With a huge range of industries set to be represented at the event on June 12, the region's premier networking event will be the perfect platform for firms to attract new customers and strengthen business links with other local companies.

Others taking stands include David Richards, Harlow & District Chamber Of Commerce, Minuteman Press, Popcorn, Coke Gearing and The Rivers Hospital.

Exhibition co-founder Khaled Khan, from NatWest, told the Star: "Our aim when we organised the first exhibition in 2010 was to provide a showcase for local people to see what local businesses can offer.

"This is still our main objective and we are pleased that this has become the biggest business event of the year in the East of England".

The Harlow Business Exhibition takes place on Tuesday June 12 at the Manor of Groves Hotel in High Wych, between 10 am and 4 pm.

A full list of exhibitors, as well as details about the sponsors, seminars and other useful information can be found at www.harlowbusinessexhibition.co.uk.

Hairy Beauties are made up to be backing St Clare

A TEAM of Hairy Beauties from Harlow College are among the latest fundraisers to sign up for the Star-backed St Clare Hospice Midnight Walk.

Moira Pring and her colleagues from the hair and beauty department will be among the hundreds of people wearing pink to 'do it in the dark' on the 10km route around Harlow on Saturday, June 16.

Moira is again supporting the Hastingwood hospice after her mother received care at St Clare before passing away last July.

"We all work at Harlow College's hair and beauty department and some of us have had a family member stay at St Clare," Moira told the Star.

"At the time of last year's Midnight Walk, my mother was having respite care at St Clare – she told me it was like a five-star hotel.

"Unfortunately, she passed away in St Margaret's Hospital, Epping, in July.

"She loved coming into college to have her hair and nails done and all the staff were very fond of her – we decided to give something back and support the hospice by doing the Midnight Walk."

Joining Moira on the walk will be head of beauty Ruth Anodin, beauty tutors Sarah Philips, Helen Barker, Hilary Richie and Yvonne Decosta and hair assessor Chloe Gifford.

Midnight Walk organiser Tracy Stratford said: "It's great to see the Hairy Beauties back again to support the hospice and the Midnight Walk.

"Whether you have walked before or it's the first time, the atmosphere is just fantastic and we'd love to see as many people there as possible.

"We are just over halfway to our target of 1,350 walkers with just less than two months to go, so register today to join in the fun!"

Registration costs £15 per person. On the night there will be on-stage entertainment and goodie bags for all walkers.

Education Secretary opens 'new' Passmores

TO develop a school where pupils are reluctant to leave the classroom when the bell rings is a challenge facing every headteacher and their staff.

Passmores Academy principal Vic Goddard, however, claims to have almost cracked it as he shows me around the school's new multi-million pound building in Traces Road during its official opening by Education Secretary Michael Gove on Friday.

"The new building is great and attendance is the highest it has ever been – we can't kick them out at the end of the day anymore!" Vic explained with a chuckle.

If my old school had been anything like the new Passmores, I doubt I would have rushed home every afternoon either.

From the perfectly preened lawns framing the entrance of the curved building – itself acting as a canvas for giant wooden letters spelling out the Passmores name – to the all-weather Tiger Turf sports pitch and extraordinary elliptical assembly hall, it is clear little expense has been spared on the school's redesign.

And yet unlike so many slick modern structures, the new building retains its clean and white-washed look without feeling cold and clinical.

"The kids love the new building and it has got real warmth," Vic continued. "It also hasn't taken anything away from the old one, which is what we were worried about. It has just made what we do even better."

In the eight months since moving from its old premises in Tendring Road, the school has gone from strength to strength, achieving its best-ever exam results, taking on academy status and becoming a household name after starring in hit Channel 4 documentary Educating Essex – which was this week nominated for a Bafta Award.

"It's quite bizarre – these are the most surreal times," said Vic.

"I think if we had been on TV doing something that was extraordinary or we had done it for the purpose of being on television, it would be different, but the fact is what was on TV was what we do every day. "There are schools up and down the country that do as good a job if not better – it's just that we happened to be captured on television."

"To think that I'm going to the Baftas because of it is just the weirdest thing, but hopefully it's about the teaching profession not just about us."

Finishing the tour in the large, central hall next to oversized wall paintings of the school's house emblems, Vic insists that the school's success is down to more than just bricks and mortar.

"I think teaching is inherently about the skill of the teacher," he said. "Whether you are doing it in a shed or a state-of-the-art classroom, it is down to that individual teacher to make an impact."

Vic added: "My hope is that staff are comfortable at the new school and now feel that there is nothing holding them back from doing what they want."

"Though the building has helped, it is the people that have really made Passmores Academy what it is today."

Man found dead at his home hit by killer blow

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A MAN found dead at his home six years ago after being struck on the head was unlawfully killed, an inquest has ruled.

The body of loner Michael Shipton (61) was discovered in the hallway of his home in The Plashes, Sheering, on March 25, 2006.

Initially his death was not treated as suspicious but a pathologist later found that he had died from forceable blows with a blunt object.

Recording the verdict at Chelmsford Coroners Court last Wednesday, Essex assistant deputy coroner Tina Harrington said: "I am sure an individual or indeed more than one individual acted together in a joint criminal enterprise and the act – that is the blows he sustained – caused his death."

Police said Mr Shipton, known as Joe, had been attacked with a smooth, heavy weapon similar to a baseball bat. He suffered a fractured skull and his body and limbs had bruising and abrasions consistent with a struggle.

There were also blood splatters which led forensic biologist Andrew Palmer to conclude he had been assaulted.

The inquest heard Mr Shipton, who lived alone, was last seen alive in his garden by a neighbour on March 24, 2006. The same evening a friend went round and found the back door open and no trace of Mr Shipton.

He returned the next morning and found Mr Shipton lying in the hallway at the bottom of the stairs with blood on his head.

Detective Chief Inspector Mark Hall, who took over responsibility for the case last year, said that at first the death did not seem suspicious but after a post mortem investigation took place scenes of crime officers returned to the house and a murder inquiry was launched.

He said there had been periodic reviews and the murder hunt continued to this day.

MICHAEL SHIPTON

The latest review began a few weeks ago although there were no active lines of inquiry at present.

The Kent and Essex Police serious crime directorate was currently reviewing expert forensic evidence to see whether "further forensic opportunities" could be exploited, he added.

"Once that forensic review is completed in the next few weeks I will look at the findings with the original main lines of inquiry, looking again at individuals who were identified as of interest during the course of the investigation and see whether there are continuing and viable lines of inquiry which can be followed with a view to identifying an offender or offenders in this case," said DCI Hall.

Giving her verdict, the coroner said there were two significant pieces of evidence which pointed to the fact that Mr Shipton had been killed.

The first was that the pathologist found he had bruising and cuts to the back of his right hand and injuries to his right knuckle which were consistent with a blow or forced impact against a hard object.

In addition, there was deep bruising to his both shoulders, left chest and left hip, injuries which the pathologist said could have been the result of a heavy backward fall but which could also have been caused by blows.

The pathologist concluded that the head injuries were caused by a combination of "hard, forceable blows with a blunt object".

The coroner said the second significant piece of evidence was the forensic scientist's report into blood splatters at the scene.

Speaking after the inquest, Mr Shipton's brother-in-law, John Taylor, said: "We are pleased the inquest has finally been held and that brings that side of things to a closure."

"The police are clearly doing all they can. It's difficult for them and we appreciate that. It's heartening there's another review being carried out and we are still hopeful someone will be brought to justice."

Most parents secure one of top two choices for primary school

THE vast majority of parents have been offered their first or second choice of primary or infant school for the next academic year, according to Essex County Council.

A total of 87.62 per cent have secured their child a space at their first choice school, with 6.43 per cent getting their second, and 2.45 per cent their third.

However, 3.5 per cent of parents could not be given any of their preferences and have been offered a place at the nearest school with space available.

Stephen Castle, the county council's cabinet member for education, said: "I am very pleased that so many parents received the news they wanted."

"This result is down to a lot of hard work and I would like to thank everyone involved in the process – officers, schools and parents – for their efforts."

He added: "I wish all the children who will be starting school for the first time in September the best of luck as they start their education."

A total of 15,775 applications were received by the county council, with around 90 per cent of applications made online.

HOLY CROSS ACADEMY

Education Secretary Michael Gove lent a hand when pupils at the Traces Road school planted a commemorative jubilee tree. Mr Gove, who was accompanied on his visit by Harlow MP Robert Halfon and Harlow Council chairman Mike Garnett, chatted with staff and children before rolling up his sleeves for a spot of gardening.

Headteacher Susan McGuigan said: "We were very honoured to receive a visit from Mr Gove and I am pleased to say that he was very impressed with our school and how courteous he found our children."

Mr Halfon added: "Holy Cross is an outstanding school and one of the first primary academies in Harlow.

"I invited Michael to visit the school because I wanted him to see all that it has achieved in the space of a few years. He toured the classrooms and was amazed by the high standards that are being achieved."

"I congratulate the head, the staff, the students and parents for all they have done."

SPINNEY INFANTS: Staff and pupils are jumping for joy after leaping up two inspection grades in their latest Ofsted report.

The Cooks Spinney school was given a 'good' rating by the education watchdog, which said it had seen "significant improvements" in the quality of teaching, behaviour and attendance. Particular commendation was given to acting headteacher Emma Wigmore and her mentor for their leadership at the school, which is due to become The Cooks Spinney Primary School from September when the infant and junior levels merge.

Ms Wigmore said everyone had worked very hard to improve standards.

"It was sheer determination and incredible hard work that has catapulted this under-performing school from special measures onto the pedestal of excellence to earn the level of 'good' in such a short period of time," she said.

GATEWAY NURSERY

Youngsters at the Perry Road pre-school spent two weeks looking after some Easter chicks when they took part in a hatching programme.

After receiving eight eggs from a local farm, they set up a special incubator and awaited their new arrivals. When six of the eggs successfully hatched, the children were responsible for keeping them fed and cleaning out their tank.

"The hatching scheme is a great learning experience for the children," said nursery owner Emma Pike. "It went really well and all of them loved looking after the chicks."

The nursery is also celebrating after winning Business Newcomer of the Year in the NMT Nursery Awards 2012.

"We took over in 2010 and have turned it round to an excellent standard, full nursery providing children with the care they need," added Emma.

"We are absolutely thrilled with how far we've come."

FURTHER information has come our way about the 1950s group The Mitchellaires. And the source for this week's reminiscences is none other than band member Bert Morton.

Bert (79) wrote to Nostalgia to confirm that – as suggested by reader Michael Caswell who sent in the photograph – he is the gentleman dressed in black standing behind Michael's dad and banjo player Phil.

Bert, who lives in Harefield, said the picture was taken on the opening night of The Key Hole Club. "It was to celebrate the new club extension to be known as the Key Glass Social Club," Bert explained.

"Michael was right to say that the band was called The Mitchellaires and that most of us were employees of Key Glass. His father worked at the company and Taffy Long, playing the accordion, worked in the canteen as one of the chefs who would cook the meals for the shift workers. They worked from 6am-2pm, 2-10pm or 10pm-6am making glass bottles.

"Don Mitchell, who played the piano and always wore a hat because he had no hair, was responsible for getting the group together. Phil often also played solo; he was very good."

According to Bert he was the first secretary of the social club while the football team was run by his brother, Tom. "That's how it all started," he said. "I used to go over and watch my brother's team play. They were pretty good. The changing room was not much though so I remember I went to see the management to see if we could improve the club.

"We started an extension fund, running raffles at work to raise money and it did not take long before the managers, having seen the club grow, agreed to pay for the extension. What we had raised ended up going on decoration and children's parties."

He added: "The club went from strength to strength with football, cricket, archery, an outdoor shooting club, fishing trips and coach outings to shows in London and nightclubs in south Wales. It was by far the best social club around!"

NOSTALGIA UPDATE: Potter Street Primary

SCHOOL memories came flooding back for one reader after she spotted herself in the line-up of this photograph taken at Potter Street School in 1963.

But Jenny Hallybone, of Paddock Mead, was quick to point out an error in the previous report.

"The name of the headmistress was Miss Leyland, not Miss Cunningham," she states, "And yes, I remember the Pekingese dogs!"

"She was the head of the infants section. The head of the junior school was Mr Jones and this picture was taken when I was in the juniors.

"Our class teacher would have been Miss Hewlett and I could give you the names of about 75 per cent of the children in the picture.

row and not the left as previously reported, is the sister of Michael Caswell who sent in the photograph.

"I have been really enjoying reading all the responses to my pictures in Nostalgia," he said. "Just to clarify though, when describing the Potter Street head as 'Miss Trunchbull-like' it was regarding her size as a youngster having her towering over us."

"She certainly wasn't a comedy figure or bully like the Matilda character. She was a very nice lady."

1987 From the Star 25 years ago

👉 Parents living near Vicarage Wood are worried about the safety of their children after a fox was seriously injured in an animal trap over the weekend. The trap, believed to have been laid by poachers, broke the back legs of the young fox which later had to be destroyed.

👉 Harlow Council has given its parks department a pat on the back this week for the delightful floral display in the Harvey Centre. Council leader Tom Farr praised the exhibit and said they had received many compliments from members of the public.

👉 Hundreds of Christians demonstrated their faith by taking part in a Walk of Witness through the town centre on Good Friday. Starting from the Town Hall with a hymn and Bible reading, the procession was led by a man carrying a wooden cross and made its way along Broad Walk.

👉 People enjoyed their Easter eggs whilst basking in above average temperatures over the bank holiday weekend. The good weather also bought positive news for local emergency services as both fire and police reported a quiet weekend, added that no Harlow residents were involved in any road traffic accidents over the Easter period.

WIN Pair of tickets to Madam Butterfly

WIN An Avengers goody bag & film tickets

ANTHONY Minghella's breathtaking production of Puccini's Madam Butterfly returns to the London Coliseum next month.

With its spectacular sets, stunning costumes and evocative use of Far Eastern theatre traditions, the English National Opera's acclaimed staging was described by The Independent as 'the simplest and most sumptuous thing we've ever seen in this theatre'.

Puccini's exquisite music underscores the emotional tale of a Japanese geisha and her devoted love for a heartless American naval lieutenant.

Oleg Caetani conducts the heartrending score while Mary Plazas, who starred in Minghella's original production, makes a triumphant return to the title role to lead an outstanding cast which includes Gwyn Hughes Jones as Pinkerton.

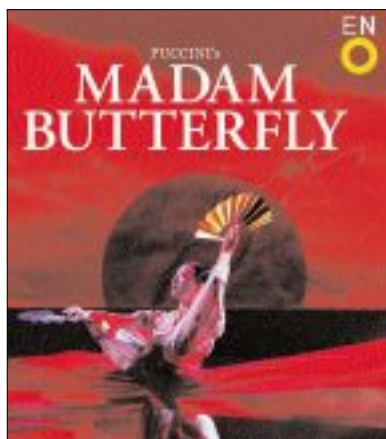

This week we are giving you the chance to win one of five pairs of tickets to this production. To enter, simply answer the question in the entry coupon and return it to Madam Butterfly Competition, PO Box 268, Cambridge CB24 6HF by Wednesday, May 2.

You can also enter via our competition link at www.harlowstar.co.uk. Be sure to enter 'Star Madam Butterfly' in the subject line or your entry will be discounted.

For more information about the ENO's production of Madam Butterfly, visit www.eno.org.

Terms & Conditions

Colourful, thrilling and extremely tasty.

Harlow Volkswagen bring you a day of racing bugs, face painting, crêpes and cupcakes.

Saturday April 28th, 10am – 4pm.

To celebrate the opening of our new showroom, we thought we'd make a day of it. We've titled it The Harlow Volkswagen Family Fun Day. Because fun there will be.

Our line up of racing bugs is made up of ten miniature Volkswagen Beetles haring round a track. You'll be able to test your skills on twisting turns and blistering straights against nine other drivers. To make it realistic, we'll even have a commentator describing the action.

With an Xbox Kinect to play on and a pair of chefs whisking up sweet and savoury crêpes with tempting cupcakes on the side, the day is made for those of you with a taste for real family enjoyment. You'll even be able to test-drive our range of Volkswagens.

We look forward to seeing you and the family, helping us make it a great day.

Press the paws button!

A NEW type of television is set to take the US by storm following the launch of a wacky new channel for dogs.

Designed to keep bored pooches entertained while their owners are out at work, DogTV went live in California last month and already has hundreds of thousands of 'viewers'.

The canine cable channel broadcasts for eight hours a day and claims to feature sounds and images scientifically proven to keep dogs relaxed and stimulated.

Because dogs can see blue and yellow but not red or green, all programmes on DogTV have been specially altered so they are suitable.

To get the right shots, cameramen got on their knees to give a dog's eye view of the world, with all sounds specially recorded at a relaxing pitch.

Pet expert Dr Nick Dodman told reporters: "They definitely recognise sounds and audio on DogTV has been tailored accordingly."

"Because high frequency sounds can be very irritating to dogs, they've been removed. And music is written and tailored for their hearing."

Dr Dodman added that dogs can see modern TV screens much more clearly than older sets - meaning four-legged viewers will have no problems lapping up their favourite shows.

Aries Mar 21-Apr 20

You can do better with your finances now, but you may have to curb a restlessness that sees you pitching in several different directions all at once. Stick to the one idea that you really feel will have clout, and put all your energies into this. Funnily enough, in a more spiritual way, this is a week when you appreciate other, non-material assets. Call now for your financial scope in full...

Taurus Apr 21-May 21

This week can be very important for you. If you have been experiencing a sense of drift, the Taurus New Moon can be the one to get you back onto the front foot. But there is a proviso, and that is to be determined to not let anyone affect your peace of mind. Be hopeful, dream a dream, and recast your identity or personal styling dynamically. Call for more news and astral advice...

Gemini May 22-Jun 21

Your future zone remains very restless, and this may see you tempted to head out in a new direction simply because you feel you should be doing something different. But if you are not sure, why not just hang with this for a while? Giving yourself some time to ponder could be just what you need. Then you can make your mind up in a less hurried way. Call for more advice...

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23

You can find yourself gravitating towards people with a cause, a reason to be. This could be through a spiritual network or interest, or a humanitarian or ecological one. But being part of something bigger can be inspiring. At work however, the surprises and switchbacks which have illustrated the last few weeks, are unlikely to be at an end. Call for your in-depth forecast...

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23

If you are not happy at work, or feel your professional aspirations are not being met, or are fed up with the rat race, the temptation could be to jump off the roundabout (proverbially) and do something radically different. And it could work. Equally, if you feel you can't do this, you can end up feeling very frustrated. Devise some fresh strategies. Call for more news and advice...

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23

Chatting with people online helps to expand our knowledge and experiences. Then again, chatting to the person down the road can do just the same. And somehow this week, someone with a very fresh or unique outlook on life, perhaps from a different cultural background, can actually help you to think anew about your own values and outlook. Call for more news and astral advice...

Libra Sept 24-Oct 23

Someone can surprise you with their take. The angle they come out with can seem to come from nowhere. This serves to remind you that people, and life, rarely fail to surprise, but this may upset your natural equilibrium. Fortunately, there can be others who thoroughly appreciate who and what you are and a touching moment is possible. Call your prediction line for more advice...

Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 22

Your relationships, be they with next door, colleagues, friends, romantically or within the family, are set to take on an added importance. You can see that you are not apart, that we all need one another and this interaction can lead to some special possibilities, due to an unusually idealistic New Moon. Reach out and see where it leads. Call me now for more news and astral advice...

Sagittarius Nov 23-Dec 21

If you can mix flair with application, and passion with hard work, it can make a lasting impression. If you have an idea, share it. Even if it is not taken on, it can change people's perception of you and show you can think differently. Someone kindly can also give you some very helpful advice linked to a health issue, which can make you glow. Call for more news...

Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20

The Sun moves into the strongest and most energizing location of the whole year. And as the New Moon forges a truly scintillating link to Neptune, barriers can come down, and a more cheerful and pleasant atmosphere can prevail. But with your emotional zone still overloaded, someone close can still cause you plenty of exasperation. Call for your in-depth forecast...

Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19

Your inventive streak shows no sign of losing lustre, but it's going to be important to give your mind a break at some point and just be - and the stars give you the opportunity to do just that. Pottering around in your garden can be therapeutic. And someone you know who is often supportive, can give you some sound and helpful romantic advice. Call for your love scope...

Pisces Feb 20-Mar 20

Neptune is one of two of the special planets which influence your sign, and this week it forges an awesome link with the wonderful Taurus New Moon. Do not underestimate the impact you can have on other people. Your words, ideas and personality can really create a fabulous impression. Yet around money, unexpected expenses can crop up. Call for your financial forecast in full...

Fast-paced satire is pure entertainment

By CHRIS MOSS

A HILARIOUS new adaptation of Richard Brinsley Sheridan's sumptuous satire The Rivals is set to raise the roof at Victoria Hall Theatre next week.

Harlow Theatre Company's intriguing take on the classic comedy of manners opens at the Old Harlow venue on Wednesday – and seasoned director Jane Miles promises audiences are in for a real treat.

"This is a play that I have wanted to put on for some time now," she told the Star. "It's fast-paced, witty and laugh-out-loud funny, and I love the fact that there really isn't any moral to the story. It's pure theatrical entertainment."

Set in Regency-era Bath, the play centres around the increasingly complicated love life of bookish young romantic Lydia Languish and her conniving suitor Jack Absolute.

Lydia, an avid reader of the swoonsome romantic novels of the period, dreams of being swept off her feet by a handsome young working class stranger – a fantasy aristocratic Jack tries to fulfill by posing as Ensign Beverly, a poor soldier.

Enthralled with the idea of rebelling against her well-to-do guardian, the moralistic, word-mangling widow Mrs Malaprop, Lydia and Jack conspire to elope together until the appearance of Jack's father and interference from love rivals Sir Lucius O'Trigger and Bob Acres threaten to derail the couple's best-laid plans.

Jane added: "One thing I really love is that every character plays an important part in the story. There isn't one forgettable, walk-on cameo role to fill.

"It's certainly a challenging play to stage, but we've got a fantastic cast that have really relished the opportunity to get their teeth into the melodrama and over-the-top humour at its heart.

"Although we're going for period detail in the set and costumes, there will be a few twists thrown in to give audiences a surprise."

● The Rivals opens at Victoria Hall Theatre on Wednesday, May 2 and runs until Saturday, May 5. Performances begin at 8pm and tickets cost £10 from (01279) 420062.

Celebrations of town's diverse culture of arts

FESTIVAL fever hits Harlow next month with the launch of the town's annual celebration of local arts, culture, heritage and music.

Now in its second year, Harlow Festival features almost 40 events organised by community groups and professional artists including live dance, drama, music and film.

Kicking off next Saturday (May 5) with an Open Doors Bank Holiday Weekend where visitors to local attractions – including Harlow Playhouse – will be able to go backstage to behind-the-scenes tours, the month-long celebration will run at venues across the town.

The packed programme features everything from Make A Bug workshops at Science Alive to an African film festival at St John's ARC.

Organisers Harlow Arts Council have also encouraged local groups to work together on intriguing joint projects, which will include collaborations between Harlow Ballet Association and the de Merc Chamber Choir and a joint production between the Efua Sey Cultural Academy and Hare Street Primary School.

Arts council chairman John Steer said: "We're delighted to be bringing back the Harlow Festival as an annual fixture.

"Harlow has a long history of arts participation and this festival will be a further testament to the quality of local cultural groups and venues. There's something for all tastes and ages, and many events are free to attend."

Festival brochures are available to pick up from Harlow Playhouse, local libraries and arts venues across the town.

A PDF version can also be downloaded from www.playhouseharlow.com.

A chance to marvel at superheroes 'A' team

AVENGERS ASSEMBLE (3D) certificate 12A, 2h27m

MORE is less in Avengers Assemble, the special effects-laden amalgamation of four Marvel Comics franchises.

Bringing together characters from Iron Man, Thor, Captain America and The Incredible Hulk, Joss Whedon's frenetic romp deftly knits together plot strands from the earlier films and threads them with tongue-in-cheek humour.

There's a clear presumption that audiences will have seen the pictures that inspire this battle royale, accounting for a paucity of fresh character development which undermines the relationship between the two heroes without a franchise.

However, while psychological substance may be thin, exhilarating action-packed sequences abound, choreographed at breakneck pace by writer-director Whedon who knows how to seamlessly meld live action with digital trickery for maximum impact.

Interestingly, he keeps the Avengers disjointed for most of the film, only bringing everyone together in the same location for the protracted final showdown to decide mankind's fate – and the likelihood of a sequel.

Thor's evil brother Loki (Tom Hiddleston) plots to exterminate mankind by harnessing the power of the pulsating Tesseract cube. Aided by an army of aliens, he steals the artefact from the subterranean headquarters of the international peacekeeping agency S.H.I.E.L.D. and enslaves scientist Selvig (Stellan Skarsgard) and ace marksman Hawkeye (Jeremy Renner) to do his nefarious bidding.

In response, Nick Fury (Samuel L Jackson), director of S.H.I.E.L.D. declares war on Loki, to the dismay of fellow agents Maria Hill (Cobie Smulders) and Phil Coulson (Clark Gregg).

Desperate times call for innovative measures and Fury scours the globe for the ultimate team of superheroes, uniting the inflated egos and rippling muscles of Iron Man (Robert Downey Jr), The Incredible Hulk (Mark Ruffalo), Thor (Chris Hemsworth), Captain America (Chris Evans) and Black Widow (Scarlett Johansson).

Avengers Assemble doesn't quite scale the dizzy heights of the original Iron Man but for almost two-and-a-half hours we're entertained and energised by Whedon's distinctive vision of the Marvel universe.

The writer-director gifts many of the best lines to Downey Jr, including a belting quip about Thor's olde worlde vernacular. There is also a lovely moment when Thor attempts to defend the actions of Loki, only to learn that his scheming sibling has killed 80 people in two days.

And when Ruffalo mutates into the not-so-jolly green giant, the final battle becomes hilariously one-sided. "Hulk smash!" he growls. Avengers Assemble is simply smashing.

When an extra-terrestrial race lands out at sea, the USS John Paul Jones and USS Sampson are scrambled into action. Determined to prove he has what it takes to fly the Jolly Roger, The Pirate Captain sets out to capture a Bank of England treasure ship but inadvertently storms The Beagle and captures a young Charles Darwin (David Tennant) who leads the crew on a merry dance that might just end with the beleaguered Captain taking home the coveted Pirate Of The Year prize.

Consequently, the imprisoned Titans led by the gods' banished father Kronos are gaining in strength and will soon escape the cavernous dungeon prison of Tartarus. Zeus is betrayed by Hades and his godly son Ares (Edgar Ramirez), who have forged a pact with Kronos to retain their immortality once hell is unleashed upon the Earth. JIM Levenstein (Jason Biggs) married sweetheart Michelle (Alyson Hannigan) but they are both suffering a bad case of parental blues now they have a young son who takes up most of their time.

The Levensteins head back to East Great Falls where Jim's father (Eugene Levy) agrees to look after the cheeky tyke while the parents attend their 13-year high school reunion.

All the gang are there: Oz (Chris Klein), who is now a minor television star with a fame-driven model girlfriend called Mia (Katrina Bowden); Kevin (Thomas Ian Nicholas), who has become a house husband with a dominant wife called Ellie (Charlene Amoia), and eternal wanderer Finch (Eddie Kaye Thomas), who has been travelling the world after his deflowering by Stifler's mom (Jennifer Coolidge). Plus Stifler (Seann William Scott) is up to his puerile tricks.

The arrival of Heather (Mena Suvari) and her cardiologist beau, Dr Ron (Jay Harrington), stirs Oz's jealousy while Kevin is nervous to see old flame Vicky (Tara Reid) again.

Elsewhere, Finch is drawn to Michelle's band camp friend

Selena (Dania Ramirez) and Jim resists the temptation to bed neighbour Kara (Ali Corbin), who he used to babysit before she blossomed into an 18-year-old, bikini-clad temptress.

Spring 2012 is already turning out to be rather unusual. This is traditionally a time of intense activity yet, despite the fact that we are indeed seeing an increase in the number of buyers registering with us (which is certainly keeping our negotiators busy), there has not been a corresponding increase in the number of new properties coming to market to keep up with this demand.

This scenario seems to be the case across the UK where transaction levels are 30% down from their 2007 peak and has actually helped to maintain prices. According to Rightmove, the average asking price rose 2.9% last month representing a 3.4% annual increase. However, this is substantially affected by the unusual Central London market where prices are now 14.9% above their May 2008 peak. Without this influence, the national figure actually shows a decrease of 4.5%. And remember these are asking prices not necessarily those achieved!

So be careful how you interpret national data! If you are selling, by all means take advantage of the fact that the market is slightly under-supplied. However, it's not necessarily the number of properties competing with yours that is the issue; it's more about how those competing properties are priced. This is highly influenced by the motivation of the seller. Just one vendor with financial difficulties can affect a whole street of values if he/she sells cheaply to avoid repossession.

Buyers find they have a two tier market into which they can tap; properties which the market has rejected for months due to ambitious pricing, and properties which are new to market and priced to sell. Which would you buy? Our job, as well-informed experts in the field, is to interpret the facts and harness the opportunity for you to move within a convenient timescale and at the best price the market will tolerate. Why not contact us for a confidential chat?

Aston oozes power and glory

By Matt Joy

PAYING homage to the past without being enslaved by it is no easy task. All car manufacturers face this particular problem with their latest products, needing to balance progress of the brand but without jumping too far ahead and leaving behind customers who love the current cars.

It's an even bigger problem for someone like Aston Martin, a firm steeped in history and with a brand image that is intimately tied to past products. The classic DB5/6 is one of the most famous cars in the world thanks to its association with a certain secret agent. But how does that help you sell a new car?

Spend a few minutes drinking in the details of this DBS Carbon Edition and you can't help thinking that Aston Martin has got it absolutely spot on. It starts with the grille and its distinctive shape that echoes those classic 1950s and 1960s icons. But sandwiching that is a carbon fibre splitter and LED headlights, details that have 21st century written all over them.

This Carbon Edition also adds the choice of diamond-turned alloy wheels with two possible finishes, carbon fibre door mirrors and rear light surrounds. There are two unique colours to this model, too – Ceramic Grey or Flame Orange, all of which go through a 25-hour hand finishing proves. The DBS usually wears more sober shades but this is the ultimate DB9 and the vibrant paint draws out the sensuous curves. Climbing inside always brings with it a sense of occasion. The flip-up door handles are a triumph of style over function; yes they are a little more awkward to use than a normal handle but it is so worth it for the looks. Pop the handle and the doors swing out and up, easing your entry but also looking very slick.

In the cabin the DBS Carbon Edition unsurprisingly adds yet more carbon fibre, this time laid over the top of the dashboard while the lower half is finished in piano black. The roof lining is also finished in quilted leather, meaning every surface is a visual and tactile treat.

On a more practical level the DBS also now receives the upgraded Garmin sat-nav system which is a big improvement on the old set up which was getting on a little.

These enhancements certainly add to the sense of occasion that comes as standard with an Aston Martin and particularly the DBS, and act as the perfect appetiser to the driving experience. The starting routine remains the same, slotting the sapphire glass oblong key into the centre of the dashboard, followed by a rapid whirr and a snarl as the magnificent V12 fires into life. This is a sporting GT car, effectively at the top of the Aston range and therefore nothing less than 12-cylinders will do.

Getting going requires a simple push of the D button in a Touchtronic II-equipped model and dropping the fly-off handbrake which is a lovely nod to older Astons.

The DBS has the Sport suspension mode as standard so starting off in the default mode gives you ride quality more comfortable than you might expect. It's no limousine, of course – you know the bumps are there but they don't disturb, so you are always aware of the road beneath you. And in this mode it can do what it should be capable of, namely covering long distances with ease and in fine style. So you might need to refuel fairly regularly, but parking up once in a while to admire the view is no hardship. But you'll want to explore the sporty side to the DBS, and punching the Sport button sharpens the throttle response as well as tightening up the dampers. A flick of the paddles gives you control over the gearbox and immediately you can feel the car tighten up, ready for action.

If you've not done so already, exercising that big V12 is a lesson in how a mechanical thing can live and breathe; the Aston delivers a series of thrilling sounds from its exhaust pipes, piling on speed relentlessly and egging you on to push harder. The raw figures say plenty – 191mph and 0-62mph in 4.3 seconds – but it feels faster than that.

Then you have the carbon ceramic brakes that shed the speed time after time with consummate ease, allowing you to charge up to a bend in complete confidence. And when you ease the DBS into that bend you have the classic front-engined, rear-wheel drive set-up to inspire confidence.

But this is still a modern car with two-stage ESP to suit your confidence and the conditions, and so it grips and communicates as well as you would hope. Ultimately it may not be quite as fast as its younger rivals but it's for you to decide whether that is more important than the size of your grin as you exit a bend, rear tyres lit up and 6.0-litres of muscle roaring away.

At this end of the pricing scale it's all about sensations, the experience and how a car makes you feel. The DBS is unutterably pretty, scintillating in its speed and is dripping with charisma and presence.

That should be enough to please anyone.

End of the road
for your vehicle?Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer

Olympics hero backs Dwain

Chambers has been competing for UK Athletics for the last five years and David Millar has been competing with British Cycling for a large number of years," said Edwards.

DWAIN CHAMBERS (PA)

"He was team captain when Mark Cavendish won the World Championships so I don't think there is going to be any issue in terms of incorporating these athletes back into the team.

"[BOA chairman] Lord Moyinhan has said they will be welcomed back with open arms."

The BOA expect to lose the case, which has been brought by the World Anti Doping Agency (WADA), meaning the likes of Chambers and Millar look set to represent Britain at this summer's Olympics despite having taken performance-enhancing drugs in the past. London 2012 chairman Seb Coe is a vehement supporter of the BOA by-law, but Edwards, who is on the organising committee's board, is not.

"Athletes should get a second chance. I wouldn't personally support a lifetime ban," said Edwards, who won gold in Sydney 12 years ago. "The reason the BOA brought their by-law is that because four-year bans for a serious drug offence turned into two. Two years is simply not enough. It's too lenient. It sends out the wrong kind of message.

"An athlete should miss one Olympic cycle if they test positive for drugs.

"What the world needs to do is to unite and introduce four-year bans. Then we would be in a much stronger position."

Canaan's a mini marathon marvel

CANAAN Soloman produced a fantastic run to win the U-13 boys category in the London Mini Marathon race.

The 13-year-old Mark Hall School student, who was representing the East of England region, won the three-mile race in 16 minutes, 20 seconds.

(HSP0808343)

The course on Sunday was the last three miles of that used for the Virgin London Marathon on the same day.

Canaan, left, got a good start from the field of 250 and as the race progressed down towards the Embankment, a group of seven had broken away.

The Harlow youngster looked very relaxed stayed with the leaders, Markham Lonsdale (North East) and Hugo Milner (Midlands) as they swept past Big Ben and the last 800 metres.

In the last 200m, Canaan then produced a burst of speed to beat Milner (2nd in 16:28) and Lonsdale (3rd in 16:29).

The pair had both beaten Canaan in the All-England Schools Cross Country Championships in March.

His coach John Stow said: "He came into this race after only a few sessions in the last 10 days.

"This win was a testament to his desire to compete at the highest level and his mental ability to rise to the big occasion. In my eyes this was his finest victory."

Murtagh sets mark in London Marathon

STEVE Murtagh set the standard when he recorded a personal best (PB) time of 2 hours, 40 minutes and 58 seconds at the Virgin London Marathon.

Murtagh was the first of 26 Harlow Running Club members to complete Sunday's race, coming 191st from 36,672 finishers.

In doing so, Murtagh also broke his own club veteran 45 record.

He was followed home by Jared Bethell (2:52.16, 616th), former Paralympian gold medalist Noel Thatcher MBE (3:25.54, 3,873rd) and Andy Terrell (3:29.05 PB, 4,406th).

Dionne Jones was the first Harlow woman to finish, coming 6,412th place in 3:40.47.

There were also PBs for David Page (4:23.19, 16,839th), Susan Dewen (4:46.06, 22,673rd), Alison Bull (4:55.24, 24,895th) and Paulene Galoppi (4:56.00, 25,050th).

The improvements for this quartet were all by nine minutes or more.

Harlow's contingent included 11 debutant marathon runners.

David Croly was the fastest debutant finisher, coming 18,425th in 4:29.09.

There were four other debutants who broke the five-hour barrier.

They were: Jason Stimpson (4:42.41, 21,836th), Duncan Hurley (4:45.54, 22,630th), Wendy Bradford (4:47.34, 23,034th), Susan Gillard (4:58.36, 25,869th), Laura Gregory (5:00.41, 26,101st), Caroline Tibbitts

(5:12.25, 28,094th), Jessica Mace (5:23.03, 29,779th), Kim Shenton (5:29.16, 30,678th), Denise Hudson (5:38.44, 31,854th), Kelly Streat (6:12.08, 34,646th).

Kenyan runners Wilson Kipsang and Mary Keitany respectively won the men's and women's races in 2:04.44 and 2:18.37.

Other Harlow RC marathon runners and times were: John Bull (3:43.50, 6,999th), Graham Saville (4:19.43, 15,913th), Peter Wickham (4:35.43, 20,086th), Judy Lodge (5:39.01, 31,899th), Cheryl Parker (5:54.45 33,488th), Derek Seymour (5:38.42, 31,851st). Other Harlow RC result (Stanwick Lakes half marathon in Northamptonshire): Jamie Jephcott 1:26:05, 4th.

Thumbs up for anti-doping lab

THE Harlow-based Olympic Games anti-doping laboratory – where up to 6,250 samples will be tested during the Olympic and Paralympic Games – has been granted accreditation by the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) following a series of rigorous tests to establish its analysis credentials.

The WADA accreditation process, which spanned a two-year period, is the final seal of approval for the laboratory, which is provided by GlaxoSmithKline (GSK) and operated by King's College London at the New Frontiers Science Park in Pinnacles.

"Achieving WADA accreditation means that the London 2012 anti-doping laboratory will operate to the highest standards of sample analysis during the Olympic and Paralympic Games," said WADA President John Fahey.

"Doping athletes must know that there is a very good chance they will be tested this summer and that everything scientifically possible – and with the assistance of growing intelligence – will be done to make sure that their efforts to cheat are detected by the experts at the laboratory."

Up to 400 samples will be analysed each day at the Harlow site during the Olympic and Paralympic Games, which is more than at any other Games in history.

Around 50 per cent of athletes will be tested at the Olympic Games, including every medallist, while the shortest test turnaround time will be 24 hours.

The laboratory, which measures the size of seven tennis courts, will be in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week. "The WADA accreditation is a green light signal that the lab is ready," said London 2012 head of anti-doping Jonathan Harris.

"The successful partnership between London 2012, GSK and King's has enabled us to present to WADA a brilliant laboratory for King's to operate at the Games."

The accreditation process was based on two international standards – ISO/IEC 17025, and the International Standard for Laboratories.

It involved several site visits to the GSK complex from WADA's Science Department and the ISO/IEC accrediting body with assessments focused on the facility, equipment, procedures and staffing during three formal inspections and dummy sample testing.

More than 1,000 London 2012 staff will work within the anti-doping process and a team of more than 150 anti-doping scientists will carry out the testing at the laboratory, led independently by Professor David Cowan, who is head of King's College London Drug Control Centre.

"I am thrilled to receive official accreditation from WADA at such an early stage," said Cowan. "We have demonstrated that everything is in place and we are well prepared to deliver robust testing for the Games."

"This accreditation provides recognition of our ability to operate an effective anti-doping laboratory."

The anti-doping programmes driven by London 2012 during the Games will also create a legacy of knowledge about anti-doping operations and processes.

STARTING from this week we will be bringing you reports every week of the season from the Harlow Nationals who play at Northbrooks and won their National Baseball League division last season.

Nationals continue great start

THE Harlow National baseball team continued their excellent start to the season with two home victories over close neighbours Essex Arrows.

Stingy fielding from the Nationals at Northbrooks Baseball Field backed up quiet and efficient hurling from Jamie Ratcliff and Roberto Almanzar and the Waltham Abbey-based outfit never looked like mounting a sustained threat.

Ratcliff followed up his one-hitter from the previous Sunday with a two-hit complete game (a pitcher who only allows a batter two shots) to gain a 5-2 win in game one.

Almanzar then followed this up with another two-hit complete game, improving on his three-hitter from last weekend as Harlow claimed a 7-0 victory in game two.

Harlow pitchers have conceded only eight hits in their last 28 innings, all orchestrated by reigning Gold Glove catcher Will Lintern.

Luis Goncalves, Maikel Azcu, Jarrod Pretorius and Brendan Cunliffe all had two hits in the opening game for the Nationals, while Luke Foley's double to centre was a rare highlight for Essex.

In the second game, Goncalves paced all hitters with a top performance and Harlow's raw teenage talent Aaron Webster showed a glimpse of what the future may hold with an excellent performance.

The scoring had been opened two innings earlier by Edwin Alcantara and Carlos Casal.

Harlow manager Marty Cullen said: "Like last week our pitching and defence was tremendous. Our starters only gave up a couple of hits each, partly down to some amazing plays behind them.

"Our bats haven't really gotten hot yet, but they will."

The Nationals won their BBF National Baseball League division last season and already look in top form for 2012.

They opened the season with a win and a loss against the London Mets followed by two wins over Bracknell Blazers.

Harlow, joint top with the Herts Falcons, now take on Southampton Mustangs in their next game this coming weekend.

Benevolent Trophy and Steve Turnbull claimed the Thames Valley Benevolent Trophy. Danny Cruse lifted 10 of the 36 trophies at Stort Valley's recent annual presentation evening, held at Canons Brook Golf Club in Harlow. These included the Poole Cup, Nocturnal Trophy and the Aggregate Rose Bowl.

Society chairman Mick Westby claimed six awards and Kevin Shaw walked off with four.

Ryan Head was again top junior, taking 11 trophies. Steve Beehan was the best of 23 anglers when Stort Valley's new season started at Arran's Lake in Blackmore Essex. This is a commercial fishery dominated by carp. Using method feeder tactics and maggot hook-bait, Beehan netted a fine haul of 129lbs 3ozs.

Kevin Shaw was second with just under 100lbs, while 53lbs and 10ozs gave Bob Groom third place.

Alfie Bates came fourth overall and was top junior, banking a superb 42lbs, 1oz.

Athlete's on top of the Worlds

HARLOW'S Richard Chiassaro insists he's in the shape of his life – and he's out to prove it at next month's BT Paralympic World Cup in Manchester.

At the age of 30, wheelchair racer Chiassaro seems to be timing his tilt at London 2012 qualification to perfection, with three personal bests in recent months.

Those new best marks came when training in the heat and humidity of the Middle East, however it is an event closer to home that tops the bill for Chiassaro at present.

The former Mark Hall School pupil will make his World Cup bow in Manchester next month, knowing that a starring display could go a long way to guaranteeing his Paralympic spot.

And he believes the chance to go up against some of his potential London 2012 rivals couldn't be better timed given his recent form.

"My main goal in Manchester is to win the 100m as I have been performing well recently," he said.

"At the moment I'm only doing the 100m, but if I get the qualifying time for the 400m I might be able to enter that race on the day so that is a goal too."

"Training and preparation

PEAK CONDITION: Richard Chiassaro is in top form ahead of next month's BT Paralympic World Cup (s) has been going really well and recently I went to Dubai and achieved three personal bests in the 100m, 200m and 400m.

"So at the moment I am in the best shape of my whole life. I don't want to reveal how close I am to the qualifying time for London 2012, but I am close.

"I am really excited about going to the World Cup as this is my first one and I am grateful to be provided with the opportunity to compete.

"With the World Cup being a home event then the crowd will be cheering you and that gets the adrenaline pumping."

Despite his bullishness about his own form, Chiassaro admits he is somewhat in the dark about the make-up of the field for the Manchester-hosted World Cup.

One face he knows he'll come up against is Beijing Paralympic silver medalist and British rival Mickey Bushell – but he's far from overawed by the prospect. "I haven't seen who I will be competing against yet, but I expect my fellow Brit Mickey Bushell to be in the final," he added.

"I know that in the line-up there will be some of the best in the world, but so am I."

Most recently, Chiassaro competed in the Wheelchair and Ambulant Disabled Track Meeting at the Kingsmeadow Stadium in Kingston, Surrey.

He won three races in the 100m (15.37secs), 200m (26.40s) and 400m (51.27s).

EXCELLENT performances came from Harlow athletes when they competed in the Wheelchair and Ambulant Disabled Track Meeting at the Kingsmeadow Stadium in Kingston, Surrey.

A winning streak was enjoyed by Anne Wafula Strike (43), who triumphed in the 100m (19.12 seconds), 200m (34.94s) and 400m (1 minute, 4 secs).

Wafula Strike, of Willowfield, has qualified for next month's Paralympic World Cup in Manchester.

The International Paralympic Committee (IPC) endorsed event saw Dean Harvey (23) gain a personal best (PB) time of 2:38 in the 800m.

Harvey also came second in the 100m (20.57s) and the 200m (41.10s), plus third in the 400m (1:15).

In junior track events, Adam Goldburgess (15) was third in the 100m (25.06s) and the 200m (54.68s), plus 7th in the 400m (1:40).

Rob Page threw 25.51m in the discus and 77.68m in the shot put.

Wafula-Strike said: "I can remember when I was the only wheelchair racer in town and I was so keen to introduce others to sport because I had first-hand experience of how it can empower disabled people."

"It was good to be competing in the same meeting with the four athletes I introduced to the sport [Richard Chiassaro, Harvey, Goldburgess, and Brazier]."

Boss unveils blueprint for club future

Marshall, striker Reece Dobson and new signing Danny Elmes – but no spot for striker Bertie Brayley.

Brayley, who gave away the ball for Waltham Forest's winner in injury-time 12 days ago at Barrows Farm, will not be returning to the club after his action last week angered Hawks chairman John Barnett.

Meanwhile, Chapman has been impressed with striker Elmes – released by League Two Northampton Town – and thinks up to nine more players of this ilk will help reignite the club and fashion a side that can bid for promotion next term.

He explained: "I've had a long conversation with Christian [Wheeler] and Tom [Cunningham]. The last two seasons we have thrown money at it and it has not quite worked for us.

"My vision for Harlow Town Football Club is that it's now time to bring in younger players. We want youngsters from professional clubs, where it has not worked out for them, and we will offer them a scholarship – a year's contract. Half [the squad] will be that age group and the other half will be experienced players.

"Those [on a scholarship] will have three days a week working on technical ability and the other two days with the rest of the players."

He continued: "They can then be integrated into our team. I feel it's the right way to go. This is the way I see it for Harlow Town FC's future. Scholars would have to be the right quality of player. I have thought about this for quite a while.

"John Barnett and Tom Cunningham are all on board with it. They see it is the right way to go. It will make us stronger in this division.

"It will be fantastic for the football club, for Harlow as a town and will be something the supporters will enjoy as well."

He added: "It's not that the money is not there. It just needs a new approach to what we are doing at the club. The club needs a massive lift, but people have to remember we were at the bottom of the league just a couple of years ago. I am still looking to achieve things."

Meanwhile, Harlow visit lowly Ilford in Saturday's final game knowing a win could hand close neighbours Ware a relegation reprieve.

Stuart Nethercott's side know they must beat Waltham Forest at home and hope Harlow defeat the Londoners with a four-goal swing in goals difference.

Midfielder Getro Kilapi (concussion) could return for Hawks.

'Why my Hawks did not go up'

Harlow Tn 3, Thamesmead Tn 2

Ryman League, division one north

By ALAN SCOTT

HAWKS boss Danny Chapman believes he must instil more of a winning mentality into his side if they are to achieve promotion next season.

Speaking after his Harlow Town side ended their Ryman division one north home campaign with a 3-2 win over mid-table Thamesmead Town on Saturday, Chapman confessed his team did not have the right frame of mind to battle back from deficits and defeat the likes of strugglers Ware and Waltham Forest.

"To get promotion – especially through the play-offs – you have got to have a certain mentality. Too many in our side did not have that mentality to win football matches. Too many wanted to feel sorry for themselves," Chapman said.

"I was in the last [Harlow] team that got promoted. The one thing that side had was togetherness to win a game of football. That's why we got promoted. It's a shame to say it, but it's the truth."

Chapman will surely have been given some hope through the recent performances of forwards Reece Dobson and two-goal Danny Elmes. The youngsters have put down a marker for next season.

The hosts went in front when Dobson scored on 18 minutes.

He hammered a brilliant shot into the top right corner from the left edge of the box.

HIGH FIVES: Danny Elmes, left, celebrates a goal with Mark Taylor, centre, and Piers Wixon (Pic: Amelia Bullett HSP0821853). Inset, Danny Chapman

Dobson's opener came just seconds after a Piers Wixon volley was superbly tipped over by Thamesmead keeper Sam Mott.

Two goals in six minutes before the break gave Harlow a commanding lead.

A lovely ball from Ryan Maxwell split the Thamesmead defence and Elmes chipped the keeper seven minutes before the break.

Elmes was on target again, making it three in two games since his release from Northampton Town, on 42 minutes.

Mark Taylor's right-wing cross was headed in by Elmes from six yards after the striker rose above two defenders to powerfully nod in.

There was controversy on 52 minutes when Deane was harshly punished for handball and Ashley Proberts fired in the spot-kick.

This came seconds after Rikki Cable's shot struck the left post for Thamesmead.

"I could not see the penalty from where I was standing. The officials have been poor at this level but without them you don't have a football match," added Chapman.

The visitors did not look like finding an equaliser and Harlow in fact were denied a fourth when sub Dave Cowley prompted a brilliant flying save from Mott five minutes from time.

HARLOW Tn: Bossu, Barnard (Marshall 67), Deane, Kirby, Haverson, Muguo, Taylor, Maxwell, Wixon (Bangura 90), Elmes (Cowley 80), Dobson. Sub not used: Wheeler. Att: 126.

Harbridge's extra effort seals cup final success

HARBRIDGE Athletic triumphed 5-2 after extra time in the Footprint Bishop's Stortford, Stansted & District League Interdivisional Cup final.

It was 2-2 against Hatfield Heath after 90 minutes at Bishop's Stortford FC before Harbridge scored three times in extra time to win Saturday's final.

The first half was goalless before Chris Bishop tapped home for Heath after Harbridge's keeper spilled a free-kick from Lewis Bull on 52 minutes.

But Harbridge scored twice in the next 15 minutes.

Steph Banaszak's six-yard shot levelled before Andrew Liles rifled in after Heath failed to clear a free-kick.

Heath were given a lifeline two minutes before the end when Mark Vintinner's shot went in off a Harbridge player to send the game into extra time. But Harbridge netted two goals in the first four minutes of extra time.

Lawrence Whale scored from the spot before Liles headed in for 4-2.

Whale fired in for 5-2 on 115 minutes.

This is Harbridge's first season in the Bishop's Stortford, Stansted & District League.

Meanwhile, Northolt went top in division one with a thrilling 5-4 victory at Sheering Reserves.

Saturday's result left Northolt on 41 points from 19 matches ahead of second-placed Sheering reserves (40 from 19) and third-placed Harbridge (40 from 19).

Northolt, whose goalscorers included Josh Thompson (penalty) and Joe Mariutti, led 5-2 with 10 minutes left but Harbridge scored twice for a tense final five minutes.

Other results:- Prem div: Hertfordshire Rangers v Heath Rovers res (p/p: waterlogged pitch).

Brave rep side suffer final loss

A HARLOW & West Essex representative side performed stoically before they lost 2-1 to Havering in the final of the U-12 Essex Schools' District Cup final.

The start to the match at Redbridge Football Club was scrappy before Harlow broke the deadlock on 20 minutes.

Charlie Dowers scored after he capitalised on a defensive error.

However, the Havering side equalised 10 minutes after the break.

Harlow almost regained the lead when Dowers' shot was headed off the line.

Havering had chances at the other end.

The best of which saw Harlow & West Essex keeper Ashley Maddams deny Bobby Sears, younger brother of West Ham United player Freddie Sears, in a one-on-one situation.

Havering's winner came when a free-kick was headed home.

The Harlow & West Essex side had played eight games from October to March in a league format against other districts in Essex. They included a few London boroughs like Newham, Redbridge and Thurrock, who were able to participate in both regional competitions.

Harlow & West Essex won five games and finished second in the league overall.

Harlow & West Essex district chairman Neil Coster said: "To have had a schools' team reach the Essex final, having finished second in the league, has been an outstanding achievement and I'd like to thank all of the boys who played.

"I would especially like to thank Troy Mead and Bill Brett who coach the side for all their efforts. It has been a wonderful season."

Alemite seal 4th Essex Cup triumph

ALEMITE Athletic set a new competition record of four Essex Saturday Junior Cup final victories after completing a 3-0 win over St Clere's at Billericay Town FC's New Lodge home.

The Harlow-based team added to their 1994, 2005 and 2009 successes and handed boss Peter Lucia a third personal triumph.

He was understandably elated after seeing Athletic lift the silverware, beaming: "I'm very, very pleased. We thoroughly deserved it, so I couldn't be much happier. The record's always been there so it's tremendous to do it and, on a personal note, it's three times now, but it's not about that. It's about the club itself and it's great for us." Alemite took the lead in the 14th minute. Bradley Devonshire's skidding effort from distance was pushed out by goalkeeper Craig Payn into the path of Dean McAteer and he cut back for Nathan Blake to drive home from close range. The deficit was doubled in calamitous circumstances in the 56th minute. There didn't seem to be too much danger as Paul Scott crossed from the right but, with Payn seemingly anticipating the cross, a defender sent a diving header into his own goal. Lucia recalled: "The second goal, I think, was the most important because it swung the game more our way. It deflated them. They were now two goals behind and, especially with it being an own goal, it's very hard to come back from that."

JUBILATION: The successful Alemite Athletic team with the Essex Saturday Junior Cup

It was game over in the 72nd minute. Ricky Cook received the ball 12 yards from goal and he kept his composure to slot home.

Blake received a red card having collected two cautions with 15 minutes left, but there was no way back for St Clere's, who have now lost all three of the county finals they have been involved in.

After watching Alemite lift the second oldest cup presented by the Essex County FA for a fourth time, Lucia admitted his club may be ready for a new challenge. He concluded: "If we can go for the Saturday Premier Cup, then that's what we'll go for next season. We'll put our toes in the water and see where it goes from there. We're always confident in the team; let's see what happens."

ALEMITE ATH: Dalby, Coombs, Devonshire (Fry, 79), Davis, Dangerfield, Cook, Scott (Walton 73), McAteer, Smith, Blake, Gordon (Grieves 46). Subs not used: Hull, Hewitt.

Olympics hero backs Dwain on visit to anti-doping lab

OLYMPICS gold medallist Jonathan Edwards spoke out on the issue of drugs cheats appearing at the London 2012 showpiece when he visited the London 2012 anti-doping laboratory in Harlow. Edwards visited the pharmaceutical giant Glaxo Smith Kline's facility at the New Frontiers Science Park on Monday.

The venue will be used to test samples and catch out any drugs cheats at the Olympics and Paralympics later this year. The likes of sprinter Dwain Chambers and cyclist David Millar – previously banned for being drug cheats – will be welcomed back into Team GB with open arms if the BOA's bylaw on lifetime bans is scrapped next week, according to Edwards.

The Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) confirmed on Monday that they will announce their verdict on whether the BOA's lifetime ban for doping is illegal next week.

"I think it's really a bit of a non-issue because Dwain
